

RS Council – Open Seats

Nominee Qualification Criteria

Knowledge

- Professional expertise within discipline plus broad industry perspective
- 10+ years relevant industry experience; currently active in the industry.

Energy

- Commitment to participate fully in Council, including associated projects
- Guideline: 5+ years leadership participation in Sponsor committees/activities
- Complement expertise, knowledge of current Council members*

For a list of current Council members and their bios, please see: <https://reportingstandards.info/about-us/rs-leadership/rs-council/>*

*

Council Responsibilities

- Improve the usefulness of investor reporting
- Monitor relevance of Standards to industry conditions, trends
- Collaborate with the Sponsors' (NCREIF and PREA) memberships
- Collaborate on related industry groups initiatives
- Review and recommend Standards changes to the RS Board
- Serve on RS initiatives, projects
- Provide input to the strategic plan (Board and Sponsors approve)
- Support the Board to promote, educate, advance the Standards

Critical Dates

Up to three new Council members will be selected

Through August 31, 2020: Nominations accepted

Send to Marybeth Kronenwetter (marybeth@reportingstandards.info)

September	Nominating Committee reviews and recommends candidates
October 1	Reporting Standards Board approves selections
Week of October 4	Candidates notified
November 1	Terms begin
November 2-5	New Council members attend Fall NCREFI Conference (in person or virtual) and participate in closed and open Council sessions
